IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

CHAMBER SUMMONS NO.84 OF 2006
IN
SUMMARY SUIT NO.2064 OF 2003

Kastur Kalyanji Shah & Ors. ..Plaintiffs

V/s.

BPL Sanyo Finance Limited ..Defendants

Mr.Subodh Joshi i/by Rajendra Mehta for the plaintiffs.

Coram : R.S.Mohite,J

Date : 10.10.2006.

PC

1. Heard Advocate for the plaintiffs. This is a Chamber summons taken out for setting aside the order of the Prothonotary & Senior Master dated 9.7.2003 rejecting the plaint under rule 986 of the High Court (O.S) Rules for non removal of objections. The objection was that leave under clause-XII was not taken and double docket was not given. Advocate for the plaintiffs states that he will undertake to remove these objections within 4 weeks of the grant of the Chamber summons. The order impugned was passed ex-parte. In the circumstances, Chamber summons is made absolute in terms of prayer clause-(a). Objections to be removed within a period of 4 weeks as per the aforesaid undertaking which is to be accepted. If the said objections are not removed within the above stipulated period, the suit to stand re-dismissed without further orders of this Court.

(R.S.Mohite,J)